Filer: California Municipal Utilities AssociationContact: Scott Blaising*Phone: (916) 682-9702*Email: blaising@braunlegal.com

Summary: On July 18, 2005, Scott Blaising, counsel for the California Municipal Utilities Association (CMUA), left a telephone voice-mail message to Julie Fitch, advisor to Cmmr. Peevey. Blaising commented on Pacific Gas and Electric Company's suggestion that elements of its advice letter filing be included in a modified version of the alternate decision, noting the suggestion is procedurally inappropriate, since it does not give parties an opportunity to provide comments on a highly technical proposal. Blaising underscored CMUA's overall view that MDL and CGDL in stand-alone situations ought to be treated comparably.

Summary: On July 19, 2005, Eric Eisenman, Chief, Regulatory Relations, Pacific Gas and Electric Company (PG&E), had a telephone communication with Amy Yip-Kikugawa, advisor to Cmmr. Bohn. Eisenman requested that the Commission support the proposed decision of ALJ Pulsifer and explained that the alternate decision of Cmmr. Peevey would exempt unfairly significant amounts of new Municipal Departing Load from surcharges. Eisenman also explained that the AD would extend the Section 369 stand-alone exemption to all components of the Cost Responsibility Surcharge, even though there is no record evidence supporting this.

Summary: On July 20, 2005, Grant Kolling, Senior Assistant City Attorney for the City of Palo Alto (City), met with Nilgun Atamturk, advisor to Cmmr. Grueneich, in San Francisco. Also present were Chris Hilen, outside counsel, for the City, and Gordon Pickering, Associate Director of Navigant Consulting.

Written material (attached to the notice) was used. The City requested that D05-06-029 be modified to exempt Palo Alto from the cost allocation for Pacific Gas and Electric Company's Self-Generation Incentive Program (SGIP). The City representatives explained that Palo Alto is a municipal utility that provides both gas and electric service to its retail customers. The City representatives stated that the decision reverses long-standing Commission policy with respect to wholesale customers and has no support in the evidentiary record of the case, because all of the parties that addressed that issue testified that wholesale customers should be exempt from the SGIP cost allocation.
